

Learning & Development Forum

Meeting to be held on Wednesday 22nd February 2012

Venue: Association of British Insurers, 51 Gresham Street, London EC2V 7HQ

Map - click here

Directions – nearest tube St. Pauls (Central Line) or Bank (Northern Line)

Tea/Coffee/Arrivals 10:00 - Meeting starts at 10:30

Agenda

10.00 - Tea/coffee

10.30 - Opening address - Engin Mustafa, APCOA

10.45 - City & Guilds session – Kevin Blanch, City & Guilds (to include a flexible tea/coffee break)

- An overview of the parking qualifications portfolio
- Update on the new leadership & management parking qualifications
- Introduction to the new Parking Enforcement Officers qualification and the many pathways
- Questions and feedback

12.30 - Ephraim Olumewo, Senior Assistant Operations Monitoring Officer, London Borough of Newham
“A Journey Through Parking” – the importance of qualifications to further career development

13.00 - Lunch

13.45 - Afternoon session - Introduction from Engin Mustafa

14.00 - Julie Freemantle, Asset Skills – the proposed UK Academy for Parking. To include:-

- Is there a need for a UK Academy specifically for parking, based on the model already developed for the facilities management sector?
- How learning providers can join the Academy and the benefits to them
- The benefits to employers looking for specific parking courses and programmes
- Questions and feedback

15.30 - Coffee and networking time

16.00 - Close

Thanks to APCOA and SYNERGY GROUP for kindly sponsoring this meeting

www.apcoa.com

www.synergygroup.co.uk