

Local Authority membership benefits

Networking

- Connect with other Local Authorities and members nationwide, in person or online, to ask questions and share solutions
- Choose from more than 70 member-led meetings and events across the UK every year, including Local Authority interest group meetings
- Join the debate at our Local Authority members' summit during the BPA's flagship event, Parkex, the biggest parking show in Europe

Advice and support

- Dedicated Local Authorities account manager for one to one support, information and advice
- BPA Lawline, offering up to 30 minutes of free legal advice for all Local Authorities
- PR Line, offering up to 30 minutes of free public relations support
- HR Line for up to 30 minutes free advice on employment law and other HR related matters

Lobbying and engagement

- Influencing the future direction of the parking profession by consistently engaging with government bodies and pushing for change to improve standards in parking
- Representing the views of our Local Authority members
- Political monitoring and intelligence gathering
- Member input to all consultation responses
- Consumer group engagement and public campaigning

“The BPA is a not for profit organisation which, over the past 50 years, has established itself as the lead voice for the parking profession”

Anjna Patel MBE,
BPA Board member and Sandwell MBC.

Local Authority membership benefits

Advancing knowledge

- Connect with the wider Local Authority membership for peer to peer experience sharing
- Members' only website section with access to the BPA knowledge bank for the latest publications, guidance, case studies and information notes
- Press monitoring and responding to parking related coverage
- Conducting research into consumer behaviour and opinions
- Regular e-newsletters and Parking News magazine
- Changing the conversation around parking through the Positive Parking Agenda
- Helping Local Authorities to innovate by sharing market information and user experiences of new and emerging technologies

Professional development

- Providing you with learning support and advice to maximise your career opportunities within parking
- Advice and guidance on parking qualifications, career progression and development opportunities
- Continuous professional development tools and resources
- Opportunities to stand for election to the Association's influential Council of Representatives and Boards

To discuss how BPA membership could help your organisation please contact membership@britishparking.co.uk