

Individual membership benefits

Professional development

- Access to over 2500 e-learning courses on wide range of topic areas
- Providing you with learning support and advice to maximise your career opportunities within parking
- Access to parking qualifications and other learning and development opportunities
- Advice and guidance on career progression
- Continuous professional development tools and resources
- Dedicated members' area on our website, including access to our knowledge library
- Opportunities to stand for election to the association's influential Council of Representatives and to sit on the Professional Development & Standards service board

Recognition and profile of parking professionals

- Demonstrate your experience and professional expertise through our qualifications grading structure
- Post nominal letters that reflect your level of expertise and experience to peers and employers
- Opportunities to be nominated for a Queen's honour or to attend one of the royal garden parties
- Ability to share your expertise and actively contribute towards the development of others within the profession

Individual membership benefits

Networking

- Connecting you with the wider parking community, including access to the parking profession's most influential leaders
- Invitations to attend some of our prestigious events, such as the AGM and President's Reception
- Speaker opportunities at our Annual Conference and Parkex, Europe's largest dedicated parking exhibition
- Opportunities to attend country, regional and interest group meetings

Information and knowledge

- Access to in-house knowledge bank and wider membership technical expertise
- Dedicated account manager for one to one support, information and advice
- BPA Lawline, offering up to 30 minutes of free legal advice for our members
- Access to the latest publications, guidance, case studies and information notes
- Regular e-newsletters and Parking News magazine keeping you up to date with sector news and innovations

To discuss how BPA membership could help you please contact membership@britishparking.co.uk